

Community Thread's Volunteer Center Affiliates

Connecting volunteers to your organization and providing support to volunteer managers

Volunteer Recruitment

Find Volunteers: Utilize our easy-to-use Community Thread Connect online database to post volunteer opportunities and in-kind needs for immediate and round-the-clock exposure. Technical support is available as needed.

Promote Opportunities: Request to have your volunteer opportunities included in promotions via our monthly e-newsletter and on our social media through our #FridayFeature.

Volunteer Referrals: We receive many inquiries from people looking to volunteer, and we will refer these individuals to your organization as appropriate for your needs.

Volunteer Management Support

Volunteer Leadership Network: Develop professional volunteer management skills through networking and educational meetings with other volunteer managers. The network meets 5 times a year.

Volunteer Management Consultations: Set up consultation meetings with the Volunteer Center staff on topics like creating a volunteer handbook, designing group volunteer projects, working with youth volunteers, and much more.

Volunteer Management Materials: Receive volunteer management materials such as position description templates and volunteer handbook, available upon request.

Special Initiatives

Spring into Service: Receive volunteer assistance to complete a one-day service project at your site on the third Saturday in May.

Community Involvement Awards: Submit nominations for the Community Involvement Awards to recognize your outstanding volunteers for their efforts and receive publicity if associated volunteer is selected.

Special Projects: Be the first to know when special projects or opportunities arise through Community Thread.

What Current Affiliates Say

"I've been in the volunteer management field for 18 years and I've never had a conversation like this. What a great opportunity!" –Volunteer Center Affiliate

"Spring into Service helps organizations get needed work done, and also helps community members build stronger community connections. Thank you to the Volunteer Center for organizing this volunteer event." – Volunteer Center Affiliate
